P.R. Ramasubrahmaneya Rajha.

MADURAI: The 'Pride of South Tamil Nadu' award, instituted by the Velammal Educational Trust, will be presented to the Chairman of RAMCO Group, P. R. Ramasubrahmaneya Rajha, by the Union Home Minister, P. Chidambaram, here on February 12. According to a press release from M. V. Muthuramalingam, chairman of Velammal Educational Trust, Mr. Rajha has been chosen for the 2010 award for his "outstanding achievements and contributions to industrial development of the nation, particularly the southern part of Tamil Nadu, and his service to society. He is not only a great leader of a large industrial house, champion of the poor but also a spiritual leader whose life has become a legend, and a source of inspiration to the people in general and young student community in particular." The award will be presented at Velammal College of Engineering and Technology.
